Today is Peace Sunday. In his 2019 World Peace Day message, which has the theme “Good politics serves peace”, Pope Francis invites us to begin our New Year with a concern for the future of life and the planet, of the youngest and the weakest. Internationally thousands are displaced and suffer as a result of war, yet the global arms trade continues unabated and people profit from war. We hear of flashpoints of potential and real violence: Russia, Ukraine, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Gaza... situations often brought about because of bad politics. Towards the end of his message Pope Francis says: Good politics is at the service of peace. It respects and promotes fundamental human rights, which are at the same time mutual obligations, enabling a bond of trust and gratitude to be forged between present and future generations. Today more than ever, our societies need “artisans of peace” who can be messengers and authentic witnesses of God the Father, who wills the good and the happiness of the human family.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 18-25 January 2019 At the Upper Room, Jesus prayed for His Disciples- “May they all be one, just as, Father, you are in me and I am in you, so that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe it was you who sent me” (Jn 17:21). Christian Unity is not only Jesus’ prayer for his disciples in the Church, it is his plan for the completion of his creation and the redemption of all humanity. So the barriers between Christians stand in the way of Christ’s will. Let’s unite and pray that these barriers be broken. Eternal Father, we praise you for sending your Son to be one of us and to save

Meeting of the Christian Network Against Caste Discrimination Monday, 11th February 2019 from 2pm - 4.30pm, St. Anselm's Parish Centre

Update on UK Caste legislation The British Government has acknowledged that caste-based discrimination does exist in this country. Recently, however, the government withdrew legislation to make it illegal to discriminate on the basis of caste.

Meena Varma, Co-ordinator of the All Party Parliamentary Group for Dalits and Director of Dalit Solidarity Network [DSNUK] will lead a discussion on caste based discrimination in the United Kingdom, how it came about that the government withdrew the legislation and how to respond to this Christmas Crib Appeal 2018. Offerings made at the Christmas Crib go to support the work of the Catholic Children's Society (Westminster). The Society would like to thank parishioners within the Diocese for your support over the last year in helping us to make a real difference to the lives of children and adults who are experiencing the effects of poverty, debt, unemployment, long-term illness or family breakdown. You can help make a difference to the lives of children and families such as these by supporting our Crib Appeal. Thank you for your support.

Welcoming The Word; Father Gerard writes: Attached to the newsletter you will find a sheet prepared by the St Beuno's Jesuit Spirituality Centre with the readings for the Feast of the Epiphany. It is offered to help people develop and maintain a personal relationship with God through Christ by praying the Word of God in advance of the Sunday liturgy. I invite you to make use of it in your homes with your families and friends or by yourself. Preparing the readings in advance of the following Sunday truly brings the Word of God alive to us when it is proclaimed on Sunday in the Church. A group of parishioners meets on Wednesdays after Mass in the Parish Centre to pray and reflect on the readings for the following Sunday. The group will follow this useful resource and will be led by Sue Cawley, our Parish Evangelisation Coordinator.

Eucharistic Ministers The Service of Eucharistic Minister is a very important task and we are very grateful to those who already participate in this ministry for their willingness to minister the Body and Blood of Our Lord to the members of our congregation. We are also very grateful to those Ministers of Holy Communion who bring the Blessed Sacrament to the Housebound who are prevented by sickness, old age, or other cause from taking part in the Mass. If you would like to support this beautiful ministry and are happy to participate in ongoing training I should like to warmly invite you to an training day for new Eucharistic Ministers in the parish. Please complete the Reply Slip below and put it into the box marked Eucharistic Ministers at the back of the church. Training for New Eucharistic Ministers
