Meeting of the Christian Network Against Caste Discrimination Monday, 11th February 2019 from 2pm - 4.30pm, St. Anselm's Parish Centre

Update on UK Caste legislation The British Government has acknowledged that caste-based discrimination does exist in this country. Recently, however, the government withdrew legislation to make it illegal to discriminate on the basis of caste. Meena Varma, Co-ordinator of the All Party Parliamentary Group for Dalits and Director of Dalit Solidarity Network [DSNUK] will lead a discussion on caste based discrimination in the United Kingdom, how it came about that the government withdrew the legislation and how to respond to this Proclaim Spring Gathering 2019: Forming Missionary Disciples, Building Missionary Parishes with Bishop John Wilson on Saturday 16th March, 9.30am - 3pm St Mark's Catholic School, Hounslow.

Welcoming The Word; Father Gerard writes: Attached to the newsletter you will find a sheet prepared by the St Beuno's Jesuit Spirituality Centre with the readings for the Feast of the Epiphany. It is offered to help people develop and maintain a personal relationship with God through Christ by praying the Word of God in advance of the Sunday liturgy. I invite you to make use of it in your homes with your families and friends or by yourself. Preparing the readings in advance of the following Sunday truly brings the Word of God alive to us when it is proclaimed on Sunday in the Church.

A group of parishioners meets on Wednesdays after Mass in the Parish Centre to pray and reflect on the readings for the following Sunday. The group will follow this useful resource and will be led by Sue Cawley, our Parish Evangelisation Coordinator.

Funeral Mass of Arthur McKenzie on Monday 11th February 2019 at 12 noon followed by burial at Greenford Park Cemetery at 1.15 pm.

The protection of minors in the Church” (21-24 February 2019). Pope calls for church leaders to attend abuse summit in the Vatican. This will be the first global gathering of bishops to discuss the worldwide scandal of abuse in the Church. The February meeting and shows that Pope Francis has made the protection of minors a fundamental priority for the Church. The meeting is not only about keeping children safe from harm worldwide. Pope Francis wants Church leaders to have a full understanding of the devastating impact that clerical sexual abuse has on victims. The Pope said: "Let it be clear that before these abominations the Church will spare no effort to do all that is necessary to bring to justice whosoever has committed such crimes. The Church will never seek to hush up or not take seriously any case. It is undeniable that some in the past, out of irresponsibility, disbelief, lack of training, inexperience, or spiritual and human short-sightedness, treated many cases without the seriousness and promptness that was due. That must never happen again. This is the choice and the decision of the whole Church. This coming February, the Church will restate her firm resolve to pursue unstintingly a path of purification. She will question, with the help of experts, how best to protect children, to avoid these tragedies, to bring healing and restoration to the victims, and to improve the training imparted in seminaries. An effort will be made to make past mistakes opportunities for eliminating this scourge, not only from the body of the Church but also from that of society. For if this grave tragedy has involved some consecrated ministers, we can ask how deeply rooted it may be in our societies and in our families. Consequently, the Church will not be limited to healing her own wounds, but will seek to deal squarely with this evil that causes the slow death of so many persons, on the moral, psychological and human levels."
